Reference text	This course is for students who wish to improve their basic knowledge and use of English. This course can either be done as a 2 semester course (4 contact lecture hours per week) during the semester or as an intensive course during the 2 semester breaks (56 contact lecture hours over 3 weeks). In both cases, at the end of which each student should have progressed from A2 to B1 level (C.E.F.). This course uses the Pre-Intermediate Level Coursebook in the series entitled "Language Leader". This coursebook provides a thought-provoking and purposeful approach to learning English. As well as including systematic grammar and vocabulary practice with extensive recycling and frequent review units, the coursebook includes sections on study skills that encourage independent learning. Students will be expected to engage fully in the class through spoken contributions and completing written exercises both in class and at home. Additional support and extension material will be provided. The most important aspect of learning a language, however, is to enjoy the process so it is hoped that all who take part in this course find it stimulating and enjoyable and then wish to proceed to the next level of study.
