Reference text	This course can either be done as a 2 semester course (4 contact lecture hours per week) during the semester or as an Intensive course during the 2 semester breaks (56 contact lecture hours over 3 weeks). In both cases, at the end of which each student should have progressed from B1 to B2 level (C.E.F.) The course uses the Level 4 coursebook from the series Progressive Skills in English. The course provides assistance in all four skills: Listening to lectures; Speaking in tutorials and seminars; Reading for research; Writing assignments. It is divided into themes, each of which is structured under the following headings vocabulary for the skills, real-time practice, learning skills, grammar for the skill and applying skills. Students will be expected to engage fully in the class through spoken contributions and completing exercises both in class and at home. Additional support and extension material will be provided.
